

BROOKE HOUSE COLLEGE
ENGLAND

Prize Giving: Awards and Graduation Celebration

5:30pm, Friday 5th June 2026

Hosted at Harborough Town Football Club

Nominees

Prizes and Citations

Graduates

to her football ability but to her understanding of the game, her fitness levels, her social interaction and her mental well-being. This is a fantastic demonstration of how being part of the Football Academy can have many more benefits than what people think if you can manage to find the positives in the work that you put in.

Micky Adams Award for High Performance Mentality and Mindset – George Foutras

Demonstrating the values, attributes and competencies of a high-performance athlete. Consistently learning from coaching in varied contexts from his time at Brooke House College and in Bulgaria. His willingness to listen, learn and apply advice in his time as a CAT 2 squad player, and then progressing to the Elite Team deserves recognition as a great example of development and commitment to the process. As a player, pupil and person George displays the HPL qualities of empathy, agility and hard-work to enable progression and high performance in every moment, learning and growing from every experience.

Prizes presented by:

David Moli

David Moli, professionally known as BoogieMoli, is a contemporary street artist originating from Congo, Kinshasa. His distinctive artistic style incorporates various materials such as stencils, graffiti, acrylic, and wheat-paste to portray iconic pop culture characters. Injury ended David's Liverpool FC career at aged just 24, but his goals in the world of art are just as big. Jack Grealish, Trent Alexander, Marcus Rashford and Raheem Sterling are just some of the big names who have commissioned Moli to produce his artistic wizardry with inventive portraits.

Louis Hamilton

Louis Hamilton is an ex-professional footballer, personal trainer, entrepreneur and founder of Hamilton's Honour Gym. Established as a start-up during the pandemic in honour of his father, a Leicester City player, who passed away when Louis was eighteen, presented challenges but is already the standard for high performance in the industry. Hamilton's Honour is Leicester's first boutique health and fitness studio, in partnership with global brand Techno-Gym and Oadby House. A local entrepreneur, going places.

Mitch Austin

Mitch Austin is the celebrated manager of our very own promoted super club Harborough Town FC. A huge part of the success achieved over the past five years has been driven by Mitch's standards and desire to continually improve qualities that have consistently transferred onto the pitch through the players. Following a historic period which has seen the club secure three promotions in five seasons and with increasing interest from across the football pyramid, it was important for the club to act swiftly

Nominees for Academic Prizes

Adam Clyde Abdulhuda
Jaydon Abedi
Khalid Abimaje
Takuto Akimoto
Ade Bakare
Tarik Baser
Teo Boev
Alex Campbell
Quintus Chi
Fraser Chrystie
Cedric Dipanda
Ife Fanou
James Flint
George Foutras
Iren Georgiev
Dee Gibson
Branimir Gyposaliev
Myles Haines
Tom Hamdy
Aaron Henson
Khushaal Jain
Aarish Ray Kapur
Sardor Khakimov
Ayan Kilje
Lucia Pak Ling Ko
Anesuishe (Pele) Mabvudza
Willow Needham
Jacob Smith
John Wai
Emerson Wallace

to secure the long-term future of one of the brightest young managers in non-league football.

Micky Adams

Our FA Technical Director, Micky Adams is a former professional footballer and manager who made over 400 league appearances. Notably, he became the first player to be sent off in the Premier League era on August 19, 1992. Highly regarded for his management, he won four promotions with clubs including Fulham, Brighton & Hove Albion, Leicester City, Coventry City, Sheffield Utd and Port Vale. Following his departure from management, Adams worked as an assessor for Premier League referees, a sports agent, and published his autobiography, My Life in Football. A genuine legend of the professional game and highly respected ambassador for Brooke House.

Duncan Gowen

Duncan Gowen is a Director at High Performance Learning (HPL) and assessor of schools delivering the framework. He recently retired from the position of Principal of Day Waterman College, Ogun State, Nigeria. Prior to that he was Principal at One Planet School, Dodoma in Tanzania, at British International School of Casablanca and at the International School of Bucharest. Duncan guided DWC through its two-year journey towards becoming an accredited HPL World Class School. Duncan is an HPL World Class School accreditor and a COBIS Lead Improvement Partner supporting schools across the world.

Prizes and Citations

High Performance Awards (Football Academy)

PDP Player of the Year – Kekeli Fometu

Kekeli has been a consistently high performer and showed a fantastic mentality both on and off the pitch. He has shown high levels of maturity and hard work and someone who has been the captain of the PDP Elite Squad leading the team through a gruelling programme of fixtures in the league, cup and tournaments. Kekeli has also managed his own personal commitments really well playing a big part in the extremely successful Harborough Town u23s season.

PDP Players Player of the Year – Kekeli Fometu

Kekeli has been recognised by his fellow peers as being a player that has performed very well across the season and has had a positive impact on his team and other players around him.

PDP Most Improved Player of the Year – Zelaye Showers

Zelaye has demonstrated a high amount of improvement across the course of the season. She has shown positive steps forward in all aspects of her game despite being the only female in her team and being constantly challenged. As well as having a high level of professionalism and dedication she has also gone on to represent her country at international level. The progress she has made both on and off the pitch has been noticeable for all FA Staff.

YDP Player of the Year – Adam King

Adam has played a major role in the YDP Elite team across a multitude of fixtures against some excellent clubs across the season. He has performed consistently well and has demonstrated a true desire and determination to defend and protect his goal which is becoming a rare quality. Over the course of the season, he has developed his leadership skills and has proven to be a positive role model to his teammates and peers. Adam has also been selected for the u18s Super Cup Squad and represented his country at international level even scoring in an u17 CONCACAF Qualifier.

YDP Players Player of the Year – Jude Angel

Jude has been recognised by his fellow peers as being a player that has performed very well across the season and has had a positive impact on his team and other players around him.

YDP Most Improved Player of the Year – Ade Bakare

Ade has improved massively over the course of this season. After joining us as a very young player Ade has shown a fantastic attitude towards trying to improve his game and is developing not only into a talented footballer but also a really good athlete. He has worked well and has had to fight hard due to having to play against players who are usually older and bigger than he is but this has not phased him or deterred him in anyway. His all around attributes and his impact on games has drastically improved as has his technical ability.

Student Athlete of the Year – James Flint

As well as some really positive performances on the pitch for the PDP Elite group through a tough range of fixtures, James has demonstrated all of the characteristics required to maximise his potential and give everything he has to the cause. On top of this James has managed to continue to excel in the classroom and has managed to dedicate his time and energy to ensuring he achieves the best possible grades he can. Receiving the CIFE Student of the Year Award at the House of Lords is also a testament to his work ethic, attitude and character both on and off the pitch.

FA Manager Recognition Award – Willow Needham

Football means very different things to each, and every person and Willow is an example of someone who has harnessed the benefits of being part of the Football Academy in a different way to most. Despite having never kicked a ball before Willow has shown that with hard work, dedication and commitment to the cause you can still make huge improvements not only

Prizes and Citations

High Performance Awards for Academic Performance and Progress

Thomas Hamdy

Thomas has consistently worked hard this year, demonstrating extensive subject knowledge and his ability to apply his knowledge to new and complex topics. He always makes a positive contribution in class, collaborating effectively with other students and always contributing innovative ideas and well-considered arguments. He supports the students he works with demonstrating empathy.

Sukru (Tarik) Basar

Tarik started the year in pre-sessional English and through exceptional hard work, effort, focus and independent study has effectively transitioned into his GCSE study programme earlier than expected. He demonstrates his commitment in every lesson and is striving to achieve his best.

Myles Haines

Myles has consistently demonstrated the qualities of a High Performance Learner. He has demonstrated his tenacity and resilience, working to complete his GCSE German in year 10. He is always ready to learn and wanting to stretch his knowledge, asking insightful questions in class. He arrives prepared to learn, engages thoughtfully in lessons and collaborates effectively with others to maximise both his own progress and that of his peers.

Alexander Campbell

Consistently demonstrating he is a High Performance Learner with excellent academic performance, working hard in class and confidently collaborating with others in the group.

Jaydon Abedi

For his constant hard work, precision and agility in class with a willingness to embrace more challenging questions and push himself to achieve deeper knowledge and understanding of his subjects.

Fraser Chrystie

Fraser has shown outstanding resilience and meta-cognitive growth, rapidly developing confidence and subject mastery. He embodies the values of High Performance Learning through his collaborative approach, regularly supporting peers and contributing to the wider learning environment through sharing knowledge, reflecting critically and engaging constructively in discussion.

Branimir Gyopsaliev

Branimir shows creativity in class with excellent problem-solving skills. He is a consistent high performer across all his subjects willing to contribute to class discussion, expressing his views in a mature and articulate way. He goes the extra mile to help both staff and his fellow students.

HPL Award for Creativity – Atsila Yumna Ifè Fanou

Ifè has created a range of highly imaginative and original artworks that show an excellent level of confidence in materials and techniques such as her imaginative compositions and design. Her recent work includes imaginative linocuts of boots with precise and original pattern designs.

Ifè was also part of the group that completed the HPL Art competition and in particular showed very good technical skills in her accurate painting of the turtle that swims in the centre of the installation.

Lindsay Webster Award for IELTS – Pak Ling Lucia Ko

Lucia has shown exceptional resilience and determination this year, working tirelessly to catch up on missed learning, address gaps in understanding, and complete outstanding work to a high standard. Her dedication to continuous improvement reflects strong HPL learning behaviours, particularly in resilience and self-regulation. She has made outstanding progress in all four skills despite a lot of upheaval this year.

CIFE Student of the Year (Academic Excellence) - James Flint

James is a mature and independent-minded scholar notable for his transition to football having participated nationally in three other sports. James is emotionally intelligent with a willingness to share expertise and support younger peers. Conscientious and highly motivated, he maintains a high level of composure, resilience and drive to manage football and academic commitments.

He was the recipient of the Council for Independent Education (CIFE) Student of the Year Award for 2026. This was presented by Lord Black at the House of Lords.

Prizes and Citations

Community and Character Awards for HPL Values, Attitudes and Attributes

Boarding Blue – Hardworking – Kristiyan Chapkanov

Kristiyan demonstrates the HPL traits of willingness to learn from every opportunity with a tenacity and determination that deserves recognition as an example to his peers. He practices hard and displays the resilience required for success and high-performance outcomes. Bullet-proof resilience, Kristiyan is highly committed with an exceptional mentality for self-improvement.

Boarding Blue - Empathy – Jahaan Nichani

Jahaan is an incredible gentleman, an inspiration to his peers. He is a kind and generous collaborator, always positive and engaging to his teachers and friends. His concern for others and society in general mark him out for recognition. In his football career at the College, he has had to demonstrate exceptional resilience in the face of adversity and is an example of strength of character, courage and conviction to everyone.

Boarding Blue - Agility – Zelaye Showers

Our lead presenter this evening is recognised for her creative and enterprising mindset. As a national captain, her leadership and ability to take calculated risks to enable high-performance outcomes is an exceptional trait. Zelaye is inspiring in her kindness and engaging support for her peers as a player and person. As School Council chair, she has provided dedicated leadership to the College and ensured that boarding values and attributes are celebrated.

Leo Constantin Award for International Fellowship – Pak Ling Lucia Ko

Lucia is an exceptional player and person and deserving recipient of this inaugural award recognising her contribution to promoting international community values in the College and beyond. Lucia is one of the most decorated players in Brooke House College history, representing her country with distinction and breaking boundaries for female achievement in football nationally and internationally. She is determined, infectiously optimistic and dedicated to personal development. A wonderful ambassador for the College and her native Hong Kong.

Mike Oliver Award for Academic Enquiry – Karin Karim

Karin is a worthy winner of this inaugural award for academic enquiry and curiosity. Karin is currently writing and Extended Project Qualification on the impact of digital technologies in the airline industry. Her tenacity to investigate and research complex scientific topics aligned to her academic studies is highly impressive. Open-minded and committed to discovery, Karin is a diligent and independently minded scholar.

Paul Kitchener Award for Empathy – Dani-Elle (Dee) Gibson

This award from a highly respected member of the Brooke House teaching community recognises traits of empathy and the characteristics of care for others and broader society. Dee is a talented player and person committed to team-work and supporting her peers. She has worked on collaborative projects to identify social concern for the wellbeing of the planet and is a highly talented artist. Creative and enterprising, Dee applies her skills for the benefit of others and the communities around her.

Laurence Jones Award for Community Engagement – Fraser Chrystie

Fraser is a deserved winner of this inaugural award that recognises contributions to the local community and engaging in leadership to improve others. As a player and person, Fraser demonstrates the traits of leadership through resilience and determination to meet individual and team challenges. Recently, Fraser qualified as a referee to understand the values and perspectives required in the game. This marks him out as open-minded, curious and committed to improving himself and football.

#136 BHC Purpose Award for Resilience – Daniel Fong

Daniel has demonstrated remarkable resilience throughout his time at Brooke House. Facing challenges with great determination, courage and a positive attitude. He has remained focussed on his goals, adapted well to change and never let obstacles get in the way of doing his best – learning from every experience. He is a passionate player who aims to be a physiotherapist and help others to deal with physical challenges to realise their potential.

Principal's Award for Leadership – Rosa Campagnolo

Rosa is an exceptional leader and collaborator who can be relied upon to take responsibility and represent the College and her peers in a variety of contexts. As a player, pupil and person she demonstrates leadership competencies to build purpose and a climate to promote high-performance across the College. Infectiously optimistic, Rosa pushes herself and others forward to take risks and make the best of opportunities on the pitch, as a learner and across extra-curricular activities. Passionate and purposeful, she is articulate and determined to succeed and support others.

Director's Fellowship – James Flint

James is a mature and independent-minded scholar who has transitioned to football having participated nationally in three other sports. Kind, reflective and open-minded across individual tasks and team activities. He stands out for a willingness to share expertise and personal initiatives around performance mindset and routines to support younger peers. Creativity, he was also willing to hold a chicken to demonstrate flexibility and adaptability to take a risk in front of a captivated audience. Conscientious and highly motivated, he maintains a high level of composure, resilience and drive to manage studies and sporting commitments. He represents the College as an elite sport ambassador on the local, national and global stage.

Graduates 2026

A-Level

James Flint

Daniel Fong

A-level and UFP

Kekeli Fometu

George Foutras

Pak Ling Lucia Ko

Emmanuel Mujuru

UFP

Atniel GF Eyitokpe Fanou

Alex Karacayli

Henry Murray

Jahaan Nichani

Lewis Wilson